As a result of the approved proposal to split every existing share into two new shares, effective as from 16 October 2017, Umicore's capital will be represented by 224,000,000 fully paid-up shares without nominal value, each representing 1/224,000,000 of the capital. These shares will be traded on the Regulated Market of Euronext Brussels from 16 October 2017 onwards.

The number of voting rights, and hence the denominator, remains unchanged and will stay at 224,000,000.
